INTERVIEW WITH MARY HOLLIES, W/F

This interview with Miss Hollies took place Pebruary 18, 1964, at 12:15 FM.
Miss Mary Hollies lives at 242 West Davis, Dallas, Texas, but has no telephone.
She is employed by Scott-Foreman, 4th Floor, Texas School Book Denository.

On November 22, 1963, Miss Mollies was on the fourth floor of the lexas School Book Depository Bullding, and was standing with Alice Foster looking out a window, watching the presidential parade. At about 12:35 Mt, Miss Mollies heard three shots, just as the president's car was headed down toward the triple underpass. She stated the shots sounded as if the, were coming from inside the building. Alse Mollies stated that she never left the building. The police came and talked to her shortly afterward. Miss Hollies states she did not know Cemald, but had seen him in the lumchroom of the 'exas School Booi Depository on momerous occasions. She does not know Jack Ruby.

W. b. Potts, Detective Homicide and Robbery Bureau